

LEAGUE WILL SWEEP CITY

Will Begin Hot Campaign in Richmond on Monday.

RALLIES IN EVERY WARD

Organization Will be Effected and a Steady Fight Against the Saloons Will be Made.

With a suddenness, that is, to say the least, intensely surprising, the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia almost within the next forty-eight hours will begin to sweep Richmond from end to end in a six weeks' campaign, and with yard meeting rallies and public addresses, effect here the policy, which has delayed for about two years.

The league has gradually spread its hand over all of Virginia, but has purposefully held back until it could gather sufficient force to invade Richmond with effect. It believes that this time has now come. The arrangements quietly made are perfect, and the sudden announcement contains details of a campaign, the first gun of which is to be fired on Monday night next. Even the programme of exercises has been arranged. The beginning will be in Marshall ward, and then during the day will be visited, canvassed and organized. In this manner the league will entrench itself firmly in the Capital city, and from then on the agitation for law enforcement and new laws will be pushed with the utmost vigor. The ultimate purpose of the league is to eradicate the saloon; one of the intermediate steps is local option.

The organization of each ward will be followed by the formation of a central city league. A weekly paper, which has started and will be called "The Richmond and Manchester Civic Sentinel."

Policy in Richmond.
In the announcements issued yesterday the league gave out the following statement concerning its policy and plans in Richmond:

Programme of Meetings.
As stated above, the campaign will begin at once on Monday. The programme for the meetings has been announced as follows:

There are three prominent features in view as the purpose for organizing a local league in each ward in the city:
First: To uphold the municipal officers in enforcing the existing laws concerning the liquor traffic.
Second: To secure such restrictive measures as may appeal to conservative temperance people.
Third: To mould temperance sentiment.

We believe that this conservative plan will commend itself to the citizens of Richmond, forward as they are, to promote the moral as well as material interests of the city.

Plans for Organizing.
1. Organize a local league in each ward.
2. Hold four public meetings in each ward in different churches; the meetings to be held on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights in each ward.

3. Appoint nominating committee and such other committees as may be deemed necessary at second meeting in each ward and have them report at the fourth meeting.

4. The president and secretary of each ward league to be members of the city league Executive Committee. After local leagues have been organized in each ward a meeting is to be held for the purpose of electing delegates to the city league and for other business that may be of importance; one person to be appointed in each ward to act as secretary of the city league.

5. Meeting to begin in the first ward on Monday, February 19th.

6. Fifteen hundred printed notices to be distributed to the houses of the people in each ward, announcing the four meetings, where local speakers and a brief statement of the policy to be pursued.

7. The daily papers to be given a schedule of the meetings and a written statement as to the object and purpose of organization.
8. Each minister in the city to receive a notice of the meetings with a request to make announcements from his respective pulpits Sunday prior to the time of holding the meetings and that he should accompany such notice to each minister, setting forth the object, policy and organizing local leagues in Richmond, and a request for each to attend as many of these meetings as convenient, particularly the meetings to be held in the ward in which his church is located.
